

CORONAVIRUS DISEASE (COVID-19): protecting the vulnerable

Between 01 and 31 July 2020, with support of WHO:

391
health workers trained on surveillance, case management and risk communication

915
sample collection kits distributed to all federal member states

3 695
samples tested in three designated laboratories

285
samples transported and shipped from inaccessible areas

31
new health facilities added to the EWARN

9 650
facemasks distributed to all federal member states

2 667
sets of full PPEs distributed to federal member states

3 893
suspected cases investigated

478 865
households visited by the community health workers (CHWs) for case finding

2 413 188
people reached out by CHWs with risk communication messages

3 327
community health workers deployed for case finding and contact tracing

73
rapid response teams deployed for field investigation and sample collection

107
alerts of COVID-19 investigated

19
isolation centers supported for patient care

20
new risk communication messages developed and distributed

Our operational response to COVID-19 is supported by: