

CORONAVIRUS DISEASE (COVID-19): protecting the vulnerable

Between 01 and 31 August 2020, with support of WHO:

456
health workers trained on surveillance, case management and risk communication

1450
sample collection kits distributed to all federal member states

7 065
samples tested in three designated laboratories

656
samples transported and shipped from inaccessible areas

20
new health facilities added to the EWARN

5 400
facemasks distributed to all federal member states

4 753
sets of full PPEs distributed to federal member states

7 530
suspected cases investigated

569 166
households visited by the community health workers (CHWs) for case finding

2 879 641
people reached out by CHWs with risk communication messages

3 327
community health workers deployed for case finding and contact tracing

73
rapid response teams deployed for field investigation and sample collection

23
alerts of COVID-19 investigated

13
isolation centers supported for patient care

25
new risk communication messages developed and distributed

Our operational response to COVID-19 is supported by:

